15. SUMMARY: (Leave Blank)

(U) This is a report of the first organized operation conducted by the Bolivian Army in the current guerrilla situation. The operation was nicknamed "Operation Cynthia" and with troops of the 4th Division, headquarters in CAMIRI, they made a sweep of the area between NANCAHUASU and LAGUNILLAS in an effort to search out guerrillas, any encampments or any hidden caches during the period 8 - 27 July 1967.

2. (C) On 8 July three companies of Battalion 2, Company CITE 2 on the west side, Company Riberalta in the center and Company Colorados on the east side proceeded northward from the area near ITI (1936S/6348W) along the NANCAHUAZU Basin. On 9 July 1967 in first contact was made by the Company Colorados in area approximately 5 kilometers south of M. DORADO (1927S/6348W) with a guerrilla force estimated at 15 men, which resulted in one Bolivian soldier WIA. On 11 July 1967 this same company encountered the same guerrilla force in an area approximately 3 kilometers north of M. DORADO, resulting in no Bolivian casualties and one guerrilla KIA. This is first time that the Bolivian Armed Forces publicly announced the capturing of a dead guerrilla. The body was taken to LAGUNILLAS and 10 days later a photograph of the dead guerrilla was published in the local newspapers and advising that the body was that of a Moises GUEVARA reputedly to be one of the Bolivian leaders of the guerrilla force. According to Bolivian Army G-2, it was the body of a examiner who had joined the guerrillas, name not provided. After the first clash on 9 July Company Colorados located an encampment in the area of M. DORADO and found a piece of paper located inside an empty toothpaste tube with 11 names on it. The names were as follows: JOAQUIN, POLO, PEDRO, ALEJANDRO, MEDICO, TANIA, VICTOR, WALTER, BRAULO, NEGRO and GUEVARA. Meanwhile on 11 July the other two companies, Company Riberalta arrived to the area of CARAPARI 2149S/6346W without sighting any guerrilla forces or any encampments and Company CITE 2 arrived at the area QUEBRADA IQUIRI (1926S/6350W) without any sightings either.

3. (C) COMMENT: This operation can be considered the first planned operation of the Bolivian Armed Forces since the outbreak of the guerrilla conflict in March. Even though they were not successful in capturing a guerrilla unit the experience obtained by the Bolivian troops has certainly enhanced their morale. For the first time, upon being fired at, they did not drop their weapons and run. Credit for the planned operation can be given to the commander of the 4th Division, Colonel Luis REQUE Teran. It was first reported that the operation was named after a daughter of Col REQUE Teran, however, it is understood that Cynthia is the name of a girl friend. Col REQUE Teran plans to utilize his troops in other plans of operations to keep the guerrillas in his area on the run and also in an attempt to locate arms caches that are presumed to be located in the NANCAHUAZU basin.
